

tions of unanimity of verdicts in criminal cases and in addition to this will discuss matters pertaining to civil juries as well as other aspects of criminal juries. Anybody who is interested is invited to attend.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Sherbow?

DELEGATE SHERBOW: Mr. President, the Committee on State Finance and Taxation will meet promptly after this session adjourns, and tomorrow at 10:00 A.M. and continuing thereafter, we will be hearing from state fiscal officers, whose names have been posted.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Morgan?

DELEGATE MORGAN: The Committee on the Executive Branch will meet immediately following the adjournment of this general session to continue its hearings. Our first witness will be Mr. William Coleman of the Commission on Intergovernmental Relations.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Moser?

DELEGATE MOSER: Mr. President, the Committee on Local Government will meet tomorrow morning at 9:15 A.M. At that time we will be honored by the presence of Mayor McKeldin and President of the City Council, Tommy D'Alesandro of Baltimore City. Discussion tomorrow will include the grant to the local government of the State's residual powers; limitations on designation of public local laws and classification system. Mr. William Marbury, who is a representative of Baltimore City and Janet Hoffman, and Mrs. Margaret Kostritsky will also be appearing before the committee at that time. Mr. Marbury, who is special counsel for representatives of Baltimore City, will be chief spokesman.

THE PRESIDENT: Are there any other announcements? Delegate Gallagher?

DELEGATE GALLAGHER: Mr. President, ladies and gentlemen, the Committee on the Legislative Branch will hear from majority leader, State Senator Harry Hughes. We will meet tomorrow morning and under the schedule tomorrow evening as well.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Boyer?

DELEGATE BOYER: Mr. President, the General Provisions Committee will continue its deliberations on education. We are practically finished in the phase of public education, and on Thursday morning will commence our deliberations on higher education. I merely point this out to those who may be interested. At 3:00 P.M. we will hear today from Mr. William Schmidt, who is the Superintendent of Prince George's County Schools, and later this afternoon we will hear from our good delegation from Montgomery County here in the Convention. Tomorrow morning we will have as our witnesses the acting Superintendent of Baltimore City Schools, and at 11:00 A.M. from the Advisory Council on Higher Education. I merely identify these good folks because I know that some of the delegates are familiar with them and perhaps would like to attend to hear these specific witnesses testify. Thank you, sir.

THE PRESIDENT: Are there any other announcements by committee chairmen?

(There was no response.)

Are there any announcements by any other delegates?

(There was no response.)

Are any delegates present now who were not present at roll call who desire to note their presence?

DELEGATE ROLLINS: Mr. President, Delegate Rollins. I wish to report my presence.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Rosenstock?

DELEGATE ROSENSTOCK: Mr. President, I wish to note my presence.

THE PRESIDENT: Are there any other delegates who desire to note their presence? If not, the Chair recognizes Delegate Powers.

DELEGATE POWERS: Mr. President, I move we adjourn until 2:00 P.M. tomorrow.

THE PRESIDENT: All those in favor, signify by saying Aye; contrary, No. The Ayes have it. It is so ordered.

(Whereupon, at 2:37 P.M., the Convention was adjourned to reconvene at 2:00 P.M. on Wednesday, September 27, 1967.)

PLENARY SESSION
